Fold down along the dotted lines. Cut at the solid line.

Place on the base (pg. 1) and secure. You will need to extend the cuts on the base onto this piece (marking the underside of the base and then cutting helps).

Fold down on the base edge, and then back up, so the molasses is flat. Secure the tab behind itself and the edges of the molasses to the edge of the base.

The next page contains the storage tank.

Cut out and fold over the darker grey section at the top of the tank.

Fold over on the dotted lines and under on the dashed lines. Form a circle with the tank, and secure the piece with tape or glue.

Cut all of the solid dark lines where the hole in the tank is formed.
